Anchored by the American market right system, the US is a goldmine for investment, but finding the right opportunities (time & place) is the challenge.

No worries. I'm here to help you sort through these and align vision with tactics and execution.

I'm Marc, the CEO of SportLogic Global. I am a sports enthusiast, an athlete, and I know the elements to succeed vs standing on the sideline watching investments fail.

Too many sports-minded investors are plagued with under performance, loss, and skeletons due to:

- Outdated strategies
- Lack of specialized expertise
- Inability to capitalise on emerging trends

That's where I come in.
